

Rebecca Roseff,
 Freelance Landscape Archaeologist and Local Historian

Address		Station Bungalows, Colwall WR13 6ED rebeccaroseff@aol.com 01684 541408
Academic Qualifications	1992	PhD University of Birmingham 'A Study of Alluviation and Landscape History in the Lugg Valley, Herefordshire
	1992	Certificate Soil Micromorphology, University of Wageningen, Netherlands
	1989	BA 2:1 University of Wales, Lampeter
Professional Membership	2005	Environmental Archaeology MIFA (Member of the Institute of Field Archaeologists) Honorary Research Fellow, University of Birmingham
Work Experience	2007
	2007-2008	Manager; Learning about pottery and small finds, HLF community project
	2007-2008	Researcher; Landscape Origins of the River Wye
	2006-2007	a)Project Manager, Apples and Pears Past, the Cider Museum, Hereford b) Researcher, Native Woodland Restoration in Herefordshire (project sponsored by Natural England)
	1998-2006	Principal Sites and Monuments Record Officer, Herefordshire Council
	1996-1998	AOC Archaeology, London, Researcher on Towns and Their Hinterlands Project
	1996	Principal Sites and Monuments Officer, Cheshire County Council (Maternity Cover)
	1994-1996	Field Archaeologist, Bucks County Museum
	1992-1994	Environmental Archaeologist, Birmingham University Field Archaeology Unit
	1986-1992	University Degrees
Other Projects	prior 1986	Self employed, catering business
	2006	Heritage Advisor for Herefordshire Council and the Village Artmakers – contact Mel Bateman, Principal Arts Officer, Cultural Services, Herefordshire Council
	2006	Woodlands of the Wye Valley, research project for the River Wye Preservation Trust and the AONB, see www.WyeWoods.co.uk
	2008	Ripon Cathedral, oral history adviser

	2007-8	12 x interviews with orchards for Community Orchards project by Bulmers Foundation
	2006	Oral history project, 'Understand the Landscape', interviews with twelve people who have worked on the land or river for the Landscape Origins of the River Wye Project www.wyevalleyhistory.net
Community Work	1998-2008	Secretary Rail for Herefordshire, 100 members, two lottery bids, many high speakers, Rail Quality Partnership (achieved 2008), discussions with all TOCs in Herefordshire, many successes with improved rail in Herefordshire
	2008	Secretary, Dinedor Hill Action Association, High Court Case DHAA v Herefordshire Council and Bloor Homes. Outcome awaited July 2008
	2006	FoE local timber campaign in Herefordshire to
Expertise		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Interpreting Landscape using earthworks, geology, ecology and history • Databases and Website (e.g. Herefordshire SMR website, WyeWoods and Woolhope database, HistoryAtTheCiderMuseum.org.uk) • Archival research, Latin documents and post medieval handwriting • Lottery applications • Report writing and presentations • Photoshop
Teaching Experience		Running ten workshops of adults on small finds from archaeological sites, includes flint tools, pottery (all periods), environmental remains and metal remains.(2008) University of Bristol, WEA and U3A courses on landscape and archaeology (2000-2007) Conference presentations (e.g. Orchards and Groves, British Library, IFA, TAG, Castle Group, West Midlands Post Medieval)
Referees		Many talks to local history groups Please apply for references